If this consignment is a “Drop-off” and not consignment, there are two options. The first option: all items not accepted by LeBonday will automatically be donated to charity. This means that these items will not be retrievable and will not be returned once they are left. The second option: all items not accepted by LeBonday will need to be retrieved by the consignor in a timely manner after receiving notification that LeBonday will not be taking it.

- OPTION 1: I understand any and all items LeBonday does not accept for consignment will automatically be donated to charity. This means that I will not be able to retrieve these items and nothing will be returned to me once I leave them. I give LeBonday permission to price items as they see fit. I will receive an item list by email with itemization of accepted items and a tally of donated items.

- OPTION 2: I understand that it is my responsibility to retrieve all the items LeBonday does not accept for consignment after I am notified of such. If I do not retrieve my items, I give LeBonday permission to donate them to charity. I give LeBonday permission to price items as they see fit. I will receive an item list by email with itemization of accepted items and a tally of items that will not be accepted.
